

Health & Safety Policy

GENERAL POLICY FOR HEALTH, SAFETY & WELFARE AT WORK

In recognition of the Health and Safety at Work Act of 1974 and other legislation relating to Health and Safety, I, the sole trader, Craig Stephen Photographers, will take all reasonable measures, as far as practically possible and take full responsibility to ensure my health, safety and welfare and that of any photo subjects whilst at work.

Craig Stephen Photographers recognises that the control of all health and safety matters arising from my work activities is not only an essential feature of my efficient operation but is also a civil and statutory obligation. As the sole trader I am responsible and it is my policy to:

Act within the framework of the law and good practice, safe and healthy working conditions, equipment and conditions of work, for myself, models, members of the public and others who are affected and working with Craig Stephen Photographers. I will work in a safe manner to prevent accidents to myself and others.

Craig Stephen Photographers takes the issue of Health and Safety extremely seriously. It is my intention to provide a safe working environment for myself and others by:

- Providing safe systems of work;
- When office based using safe office equipment;
- Using safe and well maintained camera and flash equipment;
- Working safely on location;
- Transporting myself and equipment safely;
- Providing adequate and sufficient information, instruction and advice to others.

Health and Safety remains the responsibility of Craig Stephen Photographers. My Health and Safety Policy complies with the current legal requirements and will be updated as appropriate to take accounts of future developments or changes in UK or EC legislation.

How I will deal with safety matters and the particular arrangements that will be made to implement this policy, are set out in my Health and Safety manual. It is my intention to achieve a healthy and safe working environment wherever that may be.

Craig Stephen Photographers undertakes to review this policy on a regular basis, and in the light of new knowledge, and changing legislation. This review will take place at a maximum of twelve months of the date shown below.

Signed

For Craig Stephen Photographers
1st January 2017